

Career Coaching with John Lees Associates

Most of us spend more time planning a holiday than planning careers, so spending a little time working out exactly what work you should be doing makes a big difference. At John Lees Associates we strive to provide a service totally geared to your needs, supported by up to date market expertise, information and research.

We have selected a team of experienced consultants, all in sympathy with John Lees' career books, including How To Get A Job You Love.

Unlike other career companies we don't try to lock you into a long programme. Most of our clients have 3-4 sessions, some just one. You might like to start with a 40-minute Taster Session which costs just £72.00 (£60 plus VAT). The goal of a Taster Session is to help you clarify your key issues and plan a way forward. It's also a good way to find out if career coaching will be useful to you, and a chance to get to know one of our team.

Our standard coaching rate with one of the JLA consultant team is at £120.00 per hour (£100 plus VAT), with higher rates charged for executive support. A discount is available where you pay for 3 hours' coaching in advance. Coaching is normally conducted by Zoom.

We do receive requests to work directly with John Lees and this is sometimes possible where his diary allows. Fees for working with John are available upon request.

What do sessions cover? Normally in the first meeting we will help you clarify your career goals (exploring new career pathways if that's of interest to you), and look at the barriers to change. Many of our clients feel enabled and equipped to start exploring completely new career ideas. If down the line you need a more impactful CV, a sharper job search strategy, or help preparing for an interview we can assist.

There is no obligation to commit to an extended programme of sessions but we also have an Executive Career Management Programme for clients who want to realise their maximum potential. Details are available on request.
